

Great opportunities to work as a Doctor in the UK!

St Mary's Hospital, Newport, Isle of Wight, off the coast of Southern England

The Isle of Wight is a beautiful place to live with excellent opportunities for outdoor pursuits. Most of the Island is semi-rural with miles of unspoilt coastline. St Mary's Hospital lies at the heart of the Island and is a District General Hospital with 450 beds. We employ approximately 3,000 staff and are committed to personal and professional development. We have strong links with local Universities and the Wessex Deanery.

We are looking for doctors within a number of disciplines including:

Medical Specialities / Emergency Medicine / Anaesthetics / Paediatrics and Obstetrics and Gynaecology / Orthopaedics.

We also seek various grades: SHOs (with two years experience post registration), Registrars (with three years experience) and Speciality Doctors (with four years experience – two of which in your specialty).

Some of the jobs may be recognised for specialist training subject to local and Greek approval. Salaries are in line with national contracts and will range between £29,705 - £68,638 per annum (plus on call supplement), subject to seniority and qualifications.

If you would like to discuss our opportunities further please send your CV and a covering letter to europeanapplications@iow.nhs.uk by 31 January 2012.

Interviews and selection process will take place in Athens during February 2012.

In addition to demonstrating excellent clinical skills and medical knowledge, successful candidates must demonstrate excellent English language skills. You must also be willing to undertake the registration process with the General Medical Council. The trust will support your relocation and GMC registration as well as provide introduction into the job, the NHS and the English Health and Social System in general.
